II. FINDINGS OF FACT

5. Beaman submitted an application for individual insurance producer license on September 27, 2011 in which the Commissioner was designated as agent for service of process.

7. On April 16, 2012, an order was issued by the Division immediately suspending Beaman’s insurance producer license (“Suspension Order”). Beaman was also notified that the Division’s reinstatement of the producer license was contingent upon IDR withdrawing the Certificate of Noncompliance.

12. 191 IAC 10.10(2)(a) states that a producer whose license has been suspended by order may apply to the Commissioner for reinstatement of his or her license by filing an application for reinstatement.

13. 191 IAC 10.10(2)(b) provides that applications for reinstatement must allege facts sufficient to enable the Commissioner to establish that the basis of the suspension no longer exists.

14. 191 IAC 10.10(6) provides that when a producer's license is suspended for a period beyond the license expiration date, the license will terminate on the expiration date and the producer must file an application for reinstatement in accordance with subrule 191 IAC 10.10(2).

15. Beaman is in compliance with the conditions of the Suspension Order issued on April 16, 2012.

16. Though Beaman's insurance producer license expired on August 31, 2014, she and has filed the required application for reinstatement and has alleged facts that demonstrate that the basis of the suspension no longer exists. An order of lifting the suspension should be issued pursuant to 191 IAC 10.10.
