Dear [REDACTED],

I hope this letter finds you well. My name is Richard Bryan, and I am the Chief Solicitor of Richard Bryan Family Law Firm, a distinguished law firm based in Canada. Please accept my apologies for the unexpected nature of this correspondence; I understand there has not been prior communication between us.

I am reaching out to discuss a sensitive and significant matter concerning an unclaimed "permanent life insurance policy" from one of our late clients, Late Dr Anthony [REDACTED] who unfortunately passed away approximately four years ago due to Covid-19 complications. Dr. [REDACTED], a respected Stock Broker and Retired CPA, left behind a "Payable on Death" (POD) savings account valued at approximately Ten Million Eight Hundred Thousand, Twenty United States Dollars ($10,800,020.00).

Despite exhaustive efforts, we have been unable to locate any living relatives or claimants to her estate. According to regulations set forth by the insurance company, unclaimed policies must be surrendered to the state's abandoned property division after a period ranging from two to four years post-notification.

Given the absence of direct claimants and based on the significant surname similarity and shared nationality with the deceased, I propose an opportunity for you to be recognized as the beneficiary of this policy. Should you consent to this partnership, I assure you this process will be executed with utmost professionalism and confidentiality.

Proposal Details:

Charitable Donation: 10% of the retrieved funds will be allocated to various charity organizations.

Distribution: The remaining 90% of the funds will be equitably shared between us 50% each.

This opportunity is presented without any associated risks and is compliant with legal standards. We are prepared to provide all necessary documentation and support required to substantiate your claim effectively.

We aim to resolve this matter promptly, estimating that the process could take approximately thirty (30) business days from the receipt of your consent.

For further information or to discuss this matter in detail, please do not hesitate to contact me via:

Your earliest response to this matter would be highly appreciated.

Best regards,
