SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

This is the regular comprehensive financial examination of the Company covering the intervening period from January 1, 2019, to the close of business on December 31, 2022, including any material transactions and events occurring and noted subsequent to the examination period.

The examination was conducted in accordance with the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (“NAIC”) Financial Condition Examiners Handbook (“Handbook”). The Handbook requires that the Division plan and perform the examination to evaluate the financial condition, identify current and prospective risks of the Company and evaluate system controls and procedures used to mitigate those risks. An examination also includes identifying and evaluating significant risks that could cause an insurer’s surplus to be materially misstated both currently and prospectively.

All accounts and activities of the Company were considered in accordance with the risk-focused examination process. This may include assessing significant estimates made by management and evaluating management’s compliance with Statutory Accounting Principles.

The examination does not attest to the fair presentation of the financial statements included herein. If, during the course of the examination, an adjustment is identified, the impact of such adjustment will be documented separately following the Company’s financial statements.

The examination report includes significant findings of fact and general information about the insurer and its financial condition.

HISTORY

The Company was incorporated on July 1, 1907, as the Western Grain Dealers Mutual Fire Insurance Association. The name was changed to Western Mutual Fire Insurance Company in 1933.

In 1968, the corporate structure was changed from a mutual to a stock insurance company and the name, Continental Western Insurance Company, was adopted. In addition, the interests of the policyholders were acquired in exchange for stock by the Western Holding Corporation, which later became Continental Western Industries, Inc.

In 1986, the Company’s outstanding capital stock was purchased by WRBC, a Delaware corporation, the Company’s ultimate parent. As of December 31, 1996, WRBC contributed the Company’s stock to Berkley Regional Insurance Company (“BRIC”), a subsidiary of WRBC.

CAPITAL STOCK AND DIVIDENDS

Total authorized capital was $5,000,000 consisting of 1,000,000 shares of $5 par value common stock. All authorized capital stock was issued to BRIC. The gross paid in and contributed surplus was $30,653,727 for all years covered by the examination. No dividends were issued during the examination period.

INSURANCE HOLDING COMPANY SYSTEM

The Company is a member of a holding company system as defined by Chapter 521A, Code of Iowa. The ultimate controlling entity is WRBC, a Delaware corporation based in Greenwich, Connecticut and traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol WRB.

An abbreviated organizational chart identifying the location of the Iowa insurance company within the holding company system, as of December 31, 2022, is as follows:

W. R. Berkley Corporation
    Signet Star Holdings, Inc.
        Berkley Insurance Company (DE)
            Berkley Regional Insurance Company (IA)
                Continental Western Insurance Company (IA)

MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL

SHAREHOLDERS

The corporate bylaws provide that the annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held not sooner than the 15th day of March nor later than the 30th day of June in each year, the date of the meeting within such period is to be determined by the board of directors of the corporation and with proper notice to be provided to shareholders and directors. At each annual meeting, the election of the directors shall occur. If the election of the directors is not held on the designated day, the board of directors shall cause the election to be held during a special meeting of the shareholders.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

*Thomas A. Pearce departed the Company in 2023 and was replaced by Michelle R. Rodemyer.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The Company has an established procedure for annual disclosure to its Board of Directors of any material interest or affiliation on the part of its officers, directors, or key employees that is in, or likely to, conflict with the official duties of such person. The Company requires its officers and directors to sign conflict-of-interest statements and disclose any known or potential conflict of interest as part of the annual disclosure process. An examination review of these statements indicated there were no conflicts of interest reported during the period covered by this examination.

CORPORATE RECORDS

The Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws were not amended during the period under review. The minutes of the meetings of the stockholders, the Board of Directors and the committees of the Board were reviewed for the examination period. All minutes provided were signed and properly attested.

The minutes of the Board meetings showed that the Report of Examination as of December 31, 2018, by the Iowa Insurance Division was received by the Board.

FIDELITY BONDS AND OTHER INSURANCE

Under a financial institution bond, the Company is protected against loss from any fraudulent or dishonest act of any employee up to $15,000,000 each loss occurrence and $30,000,000 aggregate limit of liability which meets the NAIC recommended minimum amount.

The other interests of the Company appear to be adequately protected through coverages afforded by policies in force with admitted insurers.

INTERCOMPANY AGREEMENTS

Intercompany Pooling and Quota Share Agreements

The Company is party to an intercompany reinsurance Pooling Agreement with Berkley Insurance Company (“BIC”), an affiliate. The Company has 0% net retention with the lead entity, BIC, retaining 100% of the pool. The agreement allows BIC to act as manager on the Company’s behalf to administer and conduct business of the various pool affiliates. These duties include acting as an agent to collect and disperse funds (including premiums and claims payments); performing accounting functions; computing reinsurance ceded and reinsurance assumed adjustments associated with the pooling agreement; computing, billing, and collection of transfer settlement balances among the pool members; furnishing personnel and facilities to carry out all necessary functions, underwriting all risks and the issuing policies; obtaining and maintaining systems necessary to perform its duties; and, finally, it allows for BIC to perform any and all other duties necessary in the operation and management of the business of the pool affiliates. This agreement has been amended to include any new subsidiaries.

Additionally, three other insurance subsidiaries and Union Standard Lloyds, an affiliated Lloyd’s entity, have separate 100% quota share reinsurance agreements in place with BIC. Therefore, all reserves are at the BIC level and there are minimal expenses at the subsidiaries.

As of December 31, 2022, the Affiliates in the Pooling Agreement are as follows:

- Acadia Insurance Company
- Admiral Insurance Company
- Berkley Assurance Company
- Berkley Casualty Company
- Berkley National Insurance Company
- Berkley Prestige Insurance Company
- Berkley Regional Insurance Company
- Berkley Specialty Insurance Company
- Carolina Casualty Insurance Company
- Continental Western Insurance Company
- Firemen’s Insurance Company of Washington, D.C.
- Gemini Insurance Company
- Great Divide Insurance Company
- Intrepid Casualty Company
- Intrepid Insurance Company
- Intrepid Specialty Insurance Company
- Key Risk Insurance Company
- Midwest Employers Casualty Company
- Nautilus Insurance Company
- Riverport Insurance Company
- StarNet Insurance Company
- Tri-State Insurance Company of Minnesota
- Union Insurance Company

Investment Advisory Agreement

The Company is party to an investment management agreement with its affiliate, Berkley Dean & Company (“Berkley Dean”). Under the terms of the agreement, Berkley Dean shall provide investment advisory and management services to the Company and have the authority to supervise and direct the investment and reinvestment of all Company securities, subject to investment limitations established pursuant to the terms of the agreement. The Company has ultimate and final authority over decisions and policies on purchases and sales of securities.

Berkley Technology Services Agreement

The Company is party to a computer services agreement with an affiliate, Berkley Technology Services, LLC (“BTS”). Under the terms of the contract, BTS is responsible for providing computer and data processing services including programming, network management, operations, and consulting services to the Company.

Intercompany Management and Service Agreement

The Company is party to a Management Agreement with BIC and several affiliated limited liability companies (Profit Centers) that perform or contract to perform certain services including underwriting, claims, and other management services to BIC and its insurance subsidiaries.

Tax Allocation Agreement

The Company and WRBC are party to a Tax Allocation Agreement. The tax allocation is based upon separate return calculations with the current credit for losses subject to the availability of the previous taxable income. WRBC is authorized to file a consolidated federal income tax return on behalf of the Company and its affiliates for the current and future taxable years.

Claims Administration Agreement

BIC entered into a Claims Management Services Agreement on behalf of affiliate Berkley subsidiaries, including the Company, with Berkley Claims Solutions LLC (“BCS”). BCS is to perform certain claims handling, management, adjustment, and related services on behalf of BIC and its insurance affiliates concerning certain insurance policies issued.

Berkley Connect Broker-Agent Agreement

BIC entered into a Broker-Agent Agreement on behalf of affiliate Berkley subsidiaries, including the Company, with Berkley Connect Insurance Solutions, LLC (“Berkley Connect”). Berkley Connect is licensed as an insurance broker-agent and surplus lines broker and will perform insurance marketing, brokerage, and related services.

EMPLOYEES' WELFARE

The Company does not have any direct employees. All personnel services and associated cost allocations are managed through the Reinsurance Pooling Agreement with Berkley Insurance Company and in some instances may be charged to the Company via the various underwriting and management agreements with the WRBC limited liability companies.

REINSURANCE

The reinsurance contracts of the Company were reviewed and no contract provisions were found to be outside the custom of the industry. All contracts had acceptable insolvency clauses and transfer of risk.

ASSUMED

Non-Affiliated Assumed Reinsurance

The Company assumes an immaterial amount of workers' compensation business equaling less than 1% of premiums from a small number of non-affiliated insurers.

CEDED

The Company is party to an intercompany reinsurance pooling agreement and Quota Share Agreement. See the affiliated intercompany pooling and quota share agreements noted under 'Intercompany Agreements'.

TERRITORY AND PLAN OF OPERATION

As of December 31, 2022, the Company was authorized to transact business in the District of Columbia and all states except California, and Florida. Direct business is produced through a network of independent producers. There are numerous specialized operating units utilizing the Continental Western Insurance Company charter. Each of these operating units has been assigned a specific profit center and may produce direct business on multiple legal entities. Under the structure, the specialized operating units are responsible for direct marketing, selling, and servicing the business they produce.

The Berkley North Pacific Group, Acadia Insurance Group and Continental Western Group profit centers produced the majority of direct business for Continental Western Insurance Company. Berkley North Pacific provides local underwriting, claims and risk management services from its home office in Seattle, Washington, and branch offices in Boise, Idaho, Spokane, Washington and Salt Lake City, Utah. Continental Western Group is a Midwest regional property and casualty insurance operation based in Des Moines, Iowa, providing underwriting and risk management services to a broad array of regional businesses in thirteen Midwest states. In addition to its generalist portfolio, Continental Western offers specialty underwriting solutions for diversified agriculture, construction, light manufacturing, transportation, volunteer fire departments, rural utilities, and collectible cars.
